Assemblyman Paul Koretz Appoints New District Director

Assemblyman Paul Koretz, representing the 42nd Assembly District, has selected Rebecca Tadin to head his District Office.

As District Director, Rebecca will oversee the day to day operations of Koretz's District Office, supervise district staff and coordinate all of the Assemblyman's community programs and district activities.

Rebecca comes to Assemblyman Koretz from the office of State Senator Richard Alarcon (D-Sun Valley), where she served as a Field Representative and Liaison to the Jewish Community. Prior to her work with the State Legislature, Rebecca held various positions as a Jewish Communal Professional with several organizations including: Milken Community High School of Stephen Wise Temple, Jewish Community Centers of Greater Los Angeles and National Council of Jewish Women Los Angeles.

"I am delighted to have Rebecca join my staff," said Assemblyman Koretz. "Her extensive work in the community and her experience in the Legislature will make her a very strong District Director. I am confident she will be a tremendous asset to my team, as well as to our constituents," he said.

"Becoming part of the Koretz Team is an important opportunity for me to continue serving the people of the State of California," said Tadin. "I am thrilled to have been selected and thankful to be working for another respected and responsible elected official. I am looking forward to meeting constituents and developing relationships with the community on behalf of the Assemblyman," she said.

Rebecca Tadin lives with her Fiancé in the San Fernando Valley. They will be married in May 2003.
